Jovita Klatt

Dear Jovita,

Thank you so very much for your recent clothing donation to Working Wardrobes. We're writing today because we want you to know just how meaningful your generosity is.

You may consider your donation just an article of clothing you thoughtfully passed on to someone else in need. For our clients, however, an article of clothing represents so much more. It represents hope. It represents a brighter future. It represents transformation. It represents a new outlook on life, confidence, self-esteem, and self-sufficiency.

It represents a job.

Our clients come from all walks of life, but one thing is constant. They have faced significant personal challenges and professional barriers on their road to employment. Every day at Working Wardrobes, we strive to help them overcome these challenges and barriers so they can realize the Power of a Paycheck.

Generous donors like you help our clients do just that. Generous donors like you fuel our mission to serve thousands of men, women, young adults, and Veterans each year.

So, please know that what might be fabric and thread to you is actually the first step on the road to self-sufficiency for our clients. For that, we are truly thankful.

Sincerely,

Margie Bridegam
